India Black in the City of Light by Carol K. Carr

This little novella, a fun read, is a prequel to the first two India novels set in Victorian England, India Black (A Madam of Espionage Mystery) and India Black and the Widow of Windsor (A Madam of Espionage Mystery). In those novels India is already established as madam of her very own brothel, after having worked a few years in another madam's establishment.

India Black book by Carol K. Carr - ThriftBooks

I thoroughly enjoyed Carol Karr's INDIA BLACK. The title character is a lovely and intelligent, young madam in 1876 London. When a government official is found dead in her brothel, she joins forces with a handsome British spy to keep valuable paper from the Russian's clutches. This mystery is witty, high-spirited, fast-paced and has great humor.
